Monday to Friday: 9:30am - 7pm

Saturday: 11am - 5pm

Last admission to the library is 20 minutes before closing.

Please check the library website for ad hoc closures.

Vacation hours

Monday to Friday: 9:30am - 5pm

(Saturday & Sunday: Closed)

The library closes for 1 week in August and over the Christmas period.
LIBRARY SERVICES

BORROWING:
Self-service machines for borrowing and returning books are located on the Ground Floor. Use your University card to borrow books. Make sure to return books on the machines before placing them on the returns trolleys.

When the library is shut the Sidgwick drop box (outside the faculty) can be used. EFL books returned to the box will be removed from your account the next working day.

Borrowed items will auto renew. You will get a monthly statement telling you what books you have on loan, or you can check any time from your account on iDiscover.

Short loan books and books which have been requested by another person will not renew. If a book is requested you must return it within 3 days. You can request books which are out on loan via the ‘request’ option on iDiscover.

Loan Allowance
12 items, any combination of books or DVDs.
Short loans: 4 days  DVDs: 4 days

LIBRARY SKILLS TRAINING:
The Library offers skills training to help you use Library resources and services effectively. Workshops for finding electronic material and managing your references are run by the Library throughout the year, and induction sessions are available: https://www.lib.cam.ac.uk/StudySkills

IT:
The computer room on the Ground floor has Macs and PCs, a B&W printer, and a colour printer (photocopier/scanner). There is a further B&W printer on the First Floor: https://help.uis.cam.ac.uk/service/printing

RESOURCES FOR PAPERS AND SUBJECT GUIDES:
We have subject guides from Medieval to Modernism recommending useful resources. Find them in the Library or via the Library’s ‘Resources for Papers’ link on our website.

The Cambridge Literature Timeline is also a good place to start for some context on the authors you’re studying.

SUPPORT:
We pride ourselves on being a friendly and knowledgeable Library team. Please feel free to approach us at any time with any queries or issues you’re having with finding or accessing books or resources for your studies, or for any questions you have about study skills such as referencing.

Books should always be checked out on the self-service machines or at the desk.

Please return books promptly when they are recalled, or your account may be suspended.

Books may not be borrowed on behalf of another reader.

Please do not write in or mark the books, either with pen or pencil.

Please be as quiet as possible within the Library and do not answer your phone.

Hot drinks with lids, and water bottles, are allowed in the library.

You can always recommend material for library purchase. See our website for link to the request form.

If you think you may have lost a book from the English Faculty Library, please contact us by email or in person to discuss what to do next.

The Team
There’s always someone at the library desk who can help you with any queries you have.

Come talk to us!
